

OISIN.....344 (complete corpus)

agreed that the king's son,
how he fared, and that
agreed that the king's son,
how he fared, and that
and to speak the truth.
Finn, and of his son,
strength in our arms."
strength in our arms."
their deep love of truth.
in these words spoken by the battle only Fionn's son
their deep love of truth.
from Our History / Junior. ?).
/ Junior. ?). Oisín WHO WAS on the morrow. WHO WAS the boy the name of
" the fawn." When Columba Readers / Junior. 1927).
Cumhal. Fionn had a son,
the poet of the Fianna.

because I love thy son

that were in store for coming to a beautiful island young lady in captivity there.
nights until at length when land that far surpassed all Tir-na-nOg. A wonderful welcome awaited
of warriors and maidens that for ten days, after which Oisín and Niamh were married.
so because she felt that lovely land of Tir-na-nOg again.
bounded off and disappeared, and Senior. 1929). St. Patrick and my sire and king."
Enda's Readers / Junior. 1929).
Mac Cumhail and his son Youth. I esteem thy son my husband there." When be thy wife." Then

Oisín , and five other chiefs, with 2013
Oisín and the others were to 2014
Oisín , and five other chiefs, with 2044
Oisín and the others were to 2045
Oisín , son of Finn, who was 2078
Oisín , his grandson Oscur, and his 2082
Oisín , the Fenian poet and son 2218
Oisín , the Fenian poet and son 2298
Oisín the poet, who was the 2357
Oisín : " We, the Fianna of 2471
Oisín and Caoilte mac Ronain, with 2490
Oisín , the poet, who was the 2572
Oisín WHO WAS OISIN? I. It 3148
OISIN? I. It happened one day 3150
OISIN? - II. Seven years passed 3173
Oisín , which means " the fawn 3193
Oisín grew up he became the 3193
Oisín in Tir-na-nOg In the reign 3299
Oisín , a man of great strength 3301
Oisín lived on to the time 3301
Oisín , whose bravery and gentleness 3304 and Oisín , so that he gladly consented 3305
Oisín learned from Niamh that its 3308
Oisín engaged the giant in single 3308
Oisín called to mind the great 3308
Oisín had hitherto seen. This was 3310
Oisín . The King and Queen, attended 3310
Oisín had ever seen, came forward 3310
Oisín and Niamh were married. Oisín 3310
Oisín lived in Tir-na-nOg for more 3312
Oisín would never return. He, however 3313
Oisín reached Erin in safety, but 3315
Oisín was left on the earth 3316
Oisín The venerable old man had 3322
Oisín , in heaven the praises swell 3331
OISININ THE LAND OF YOUTH 3347
Oisín were hunting with their comrades 3350
Oisín above all others, and have 3355
Oisín looked at the maiden and 3356 Oisín was very glad. He mounted 3358 they rode away together. " all his followers saw how sorrowful and wept much ; and a gold-hilted sword. Then said the Land of Youth."

shining like the sun, and that unhappy lady," said my hands." Niamh and is still alive ! " But safety, noble youth." But at the Queen and challenged nights ; but in the end laid low. The ladies carried he was made whole again, our own land." Then and said : " Welcome, O be thine." Thus did peace for three hundred years.
OF YOUTH. PART III. Though farewell ! She wept much ; but were dead also. Of this, Land of Youth." When where it had once stood !
him remain. At last, as was too heavy for them.
away like an arrow, and 1937). THE RETURN OF OISIN-I.
She had golden hair, and anyone so beautiful. She liked was King of that country.
For-Ever-Young. There the King made Niamh to be his wife.
said, had gone by since Princess on a snow-white steed.
Kincora Readers / Junior. 1940).
Irish hero, had a son,
of the Golden Hair."
go with her to Tir-na-nOg.
you will never return."
OF YOUTH. PART II. So
as fine as their own.
palace, glittering like the sun, come forward as yet. Then cruel giant is alive."
towards the palace, and, seeing

Oisín , " said the lady, let 3359
Oisín had gone from them they 3361
Oisín himself could not keep back 3361
Oisín : " tell me., I pray 3363
OISININ THE -LAND OF YOUTH 3367
Oisín said again : " What is 3370
Oisín ; " I will go and 3372
Oisín went together to the fortress 3373
Oisín comforted her and said : " 3375 Oisín answered : " I tell thee 3377
Oisín to battle. Then they strove 3378
Oisín had the victory, and the 3378
Oisín within the fortress, and laid 3379
Oisín buried the giant in a 3379
Oisín and Niamh bade farewell to 3380
Oisín , son of Fionn, to the 3382
Oisín make his home in the 3383
OISININ THE. LAND OF YOUTH 3386
Oisín was happy in the enchanted 3389
Oisín comforted her tenderly, and vowed 3391
Oisín as yet knew nothing ; he 3393
Oisín heard this, and knew that 3396
Oisín sought through Erin in all 3396
Oisín rode, he saw in a 3398
Oisín marvelled much that men should 3399
Oisín found himself lying on the 3400
Oisín , the son of Finn, was 3457
Oisín thought that he had never 3458
Oisín , too, and told him who 3458
Oisín loved her from the first 3459

Oisín welcome and gave him the 3462

Oisín was very happy in his 3462
Oisín , the son of Finn, had 3468
Oisín turned away sadly thinking of 3469
OISININ THE LAND OF YOUTH 3476
Oisín , who was brave, gentle and 3479
Oisín looked at the lady, and 3485
Oisín replied that nothing else would 3488
OISININ THE LAND OF YOUTH 3490
Oisín bade Fionn and the Fianna 3493
Oisín asked the meaning of these 3495
Oisín asked whose palace this should 3497
Oisín said that he would, of 3498
Oisín promised to meet the giant 3501 Oisín , he challenged him to battle 3502 food or sleep. At last,	Oisín , spurred on by the sight	3502	steeds and some on white.	Oisín mounted a black steed, and	3615

At the dawn of day,	Oisín and Niam took leave of	3503	to meet them. " Welcome,	Oisín , son of the great Fionn	3617
At length, after many days	Oisín saw a country near at	3504	death never comes." Il	Oisín was happy in Tir na	3622 and gems of every colour.	Oisín asked Niam the name of	3504	is not like mortal time,	Oisín . Here, a hundred years is	3623
a hundred thousand welcomes,	Oisín my daughter, the gentle golden-	3507	a short time," said	Oisín . " When I have seen	3624 brave	haired	3507	to Tir na nOg."	Oisín took leave of Niamh, and	3627 and at the last day	Oisín was wedded to the gentle	3508	into white spray. At last,	Oisín reached Eire. The people working	3628
Niam of the Golden Hair.	OISIN IN THE LAND OF YOUTH	3510	golden trappings of his horse.	Oisín rode on till he came	3629
OF YOUTH. PART III. After	Oisín had lived in the Land	3513	a messenger from another world.	Oisín pitied these men. They were	3633 will never return." But	Oisín promised to return, saying that	3514	eye, age had come upon	Oisín . He turned to the men	3634 did she solemnly warn him.	Oisín was heavy at heart as	3515	Weariness and sorrow came upon	Oisín . The friends of his youth	3637 going back to Erin. When	Oisín reached home, he saw no	3516	story-tellers finish the story of	Oisín telling how he was brought	3637 have read about his son	Oisín , who went with a fairy	3518	and the heroes of old.	Oisín , for the short span of	3637 of an arrow, he left	Oisín standing there helpless and sad	3522	and Fancy / Intermediate. 1963).	OISIN IN THE LAND OF THE	3643
Emerald Reader / Junior. 1945).	OISIN i dTIR na nOG Finn	3566	THE LAND OF THE YOUNG	Oisín , the son of Fionn was	3645
I love thy noble son,	Oisín , and that is what has	3572	one day, when Fionn and	Oisín were hunting, that they saw	3646 of his person." When	Oisín heard these words, and when	3573	"He is your own son,	Oisín ," said the princess. "In	3656
to Tir na nOg."	Oisín replied that she was his	3575	grows old. 'I, now ask	Oisín , son of Fionn, to come	3659 return to me again ! "	Oisín then bade farewell to his	3577	to my own land."	Oisín took Niamh's hand in his	3660 again. It was then that	Oisín saw land ahead, a land	3579	behind them. Many wonderful things	Oisín saw in the sea that	3664
the host : " This is	Oisín , the son of Finn, for	3582	Young were ringing to welcome	Oisín . The very next morning Niamh	3671 a hundred thousand welcomes,	Oisín . You will be for ever	3582	very next morning Niamh and	Oisín were married. They lived together	3672 brave	Oisín gave thanks to the king	3583	two boys and a girl.	Oisín loved his wife very much	3674 shall be your wife."	Oisín was wedded to his beloved	3584	once more. It seemed to	Oisín that only nine years had	3676 and on the last day	Oisín replied that he would return	3586	be three hundred years."	Oisín did not really believe this	3681 never return to me."	Oisín promised that he would remember	3588	wife or children again."	Oisín laughed. "Do not be afraid	3688 come back to me."	Oisín asked them about Finn and	3591	last kiss, my dear one.	Oisín touched the horse's side with	3691
and majesty of his person.	Oisín who went with a fairy	3592	over land and sea. When	Oisín reached Ireland he saw much	3692
Finn had a son named	Oisín was filled with amazement, and	3593	stories about the Fianna.	Oisín went, he saw churches and	3696 after." On hearing this	Oisín stooped forward, seized the stone	3594	Everywhere	Oisín felt very much on his	3698 are all too weak."	Oisín standing helpless and sorrowful.	3595	the Cross for all men.	Oisín , and how weak they seem	3701 on a March day, leaving	Instantly	3595	these men are!" thought	Oisín slipped from the horse's back	3707
steed was never seen again.	Oisín never recovered his sight, his	3596	fright. While lifting the stone,	Oisín and carried him to the	3709
Key Readers / Junior. 1954).	Oisín in Tir na nOg I	3601	sea. The men picked up	Oisín was now as old and	3710
One day, when Fionn and	Oisín were hunting with the Fianna	3604	Saint Patrick later met him.	Oisín stories. He told him stories	3715 here to ask your son	Oisín to go back with me	3606	Fianna." Patrick also told	Oisín in Tir na nOg One	3724 stay." Then, turning to	Oisín , Niamh said : " Will you	3608	Extension E / Junior? 1974.).	Oisín , the son of Fionn. There	3726
you go back with me,	Oisín , to the Land of Youth	3608	near Killarney. With them was	Oisín , ' said Niamh Chinn Oir	3729
That I will," said	Oisín , " and to the world's	3608	' `I have come for	Oisín said he would love to	3730 cast a fairy spell on	Oisín . He cared no more for	3610	na nOg with me.'	Oisín climbed up on the white	3731
Youth. Then Niamh sang to	Oisín , and the old stories tell	3610	but he wished him well.	Oisín . That very day Niamh and	3732
When the magic song ended,	Oisín jumped up on the white	3611	came to welcome Niamh and	Oisín were married and a great	3732
a summer sea, and then	Oisín saw before him the roofs	3612	That very day Niamh and	Oisín was very happy in Tir	3733 his hand. Soon Niamh and	Oisín came to the walls of	3614	a great feast was held.	Oisín visit Ireland. `But do not	3734
of eternal youth. Niamh led	Oisín through a towered gateway built	3615	more. Niamh agreed to let	Oisín mounted the white horse. It	3735 to Tir na nOg.'

Fianna were long since dead.	Oisín was alone, a stranger. He	3735	in Ireland at that time.	Oisín told the saint all about	3807 quickly to Tir na nOg.	Oisín passed through Gleann na Smol	3737	in Tir na nOg. When	Oisín had told all his stories	3807 that his saddle strap broke.	Oisín fell to the ground. He	3737	baptised him. Later that day	Oisín died. (The March of Time	3807
A great change came over	Oisín . He suddenly became a withered	3739	Time 1 / Junior. 1996).	OISIN Oisín, the son of Fionn	3813 was three hundred years old.	Oisín was brought to St Patrick	3740	1 / Junior. 1996). OISIN	Oisín , the son of Fionn, was	3815
was brought to St Patrick.	Oisín told St Patrick about Fionn	3740	a great old age and	Oisín told him the following story	3816
St Patrick baptised him and	Oisín died. (Pathways in History 1	3740	were utterly. defeated, Fionn and	Oisín and the few remaining members	3816
History 1 / Junior. 1983).	Oisín in Tir na nOg In	3746	came to request his son	Oisín to go with her to	3819 land and water. Niamh saw	Oisín and fell in love with	3751	misery and death were unknown.	Oisín , on hearing this, declared that	3820 will never grow old.'	Oisín went with her. The white	3753	dearly - still he gave	Oisín his blessing and bade him	3821 them both across the sea.	Oisín was happy. He remained strong	3754	blessing and bade him farewell.	Oisín then mounted the steed behind	3822 seemed to him like one,	Oisín wished to come home to	3755	passed many beautiful places, and	Oisín was thrilled with the amazing	3823
set foot on Irish ground.	Oisín found that the Fianna had	3758	and three nights, until finally	Oisín slew the giant, and thus	3823
The saddle strap broke, and	Oisín fell to the ground. Suddenly	3760	arrived at Tir na nOg.	Oisín received a wonderful welcome from	3824 na nOg was lost to	Oisín for ever. (Strands 1 /	3761	a lovely girl - and	Oisín lived happily for three hundred	3825 Strands 1 / Junior. 1989).	Oisín in Tir na nOg The	3767	fair land of Eire -	Oisín became sad and longed to	3825 is the story of how	Oisín , who was the son of	3771	he would never return again.	Oisín mounted the steed and soon	3827 come to ask your son	Oisín to return with me to	3772	large flat stone. They implored	Oisín to help them. He stooped	3827 for he feared that if	Oisín went with Niamh, he would	3773	most amazing change came over	Oisín - he fell to the	3828 never see him again. But	Oisín was already in love with	3773	in this pitiful state that	Oisín met Naomh Padraig, who was	3829 galloped into the morning mist.	Oisín in Tir na nOg Over	3776	the Fianna, and once asked	Oisín what kept them so noble	3831 shores of Tir na nOg.	Oisín was welcomed by Niamh's parents	3777	days of yore ? " And	Oisín , last of the Fianna, Proudly	3876 was held for the couple.	Oisín lived in Tir na nOg	3777	days of yore ? " And	Oisín , last of the Fianna, Proudly	3897
return to Tir na nOg.	Oisín Returns to Ireland When Oisín	3779	days of yore ? " And	Oisín , last of the Fianna, Proudly	3939
Oisín Returns to Ireland When	Oisín reached Ireland he found that	3780	Diarmuid, brave and gentle. And	Oisín , skilled at sword and music	4001 a heavy stone. The mighty	Oisín stooped down in his saddle	3780	was bound tightly, standing	Oisín and Coil. Suddenly a noise	4009
a terrible change came over	Oisín . In the twinkle of an	3781	between	Oisín and Oisín's son, Oscar. There	4033 and feeble. The Death of	Oisín Storytellers say that Oisín was	3783	famous members were Fionn's son,	Oisín the poet, Oscar the mighty	4078 of Oisín Storytellers say that	Oisín was brought to Saint Patrick	3784	had wonderful heroes; there was	Oisín , Fionn's son. He was a	4094 comfort him before he died.	Oisín talked about the old days	3784	of the Fianna were: -	Oisín , came to Erin and prevailed	4788
Book 1 / Junior. 1993).	OISIN IN TIR NA nOG One	3790	the nobility and valour of	Oisín . Diarmuid was the handsomest of	4788
near the lakes of Killarney.	Oisín , the son of Fionn, was	3792	as romantic as that of	Oisín , also won the affections of	4792
I have come to ask	Oisín to return there with me	3795	companions and friends. Diarmuid,	Oisín , this honour only brought him	4792 go away with you?'	Oisín asked her. 'Because in my	3796	like	Oisín and the grandfather of Oscar	4792 will be your wife.'	Oisín said, 'Yes, I shall go	3798	a king's daughter; but, unlike	Oisín and Oscar, the son and	4801
but he wished him well.	Oisín climbed on the back of	3799	years, being the father of	Oisín of the powerful hand, First	5312 sea to Tir na nOg.	Oisín and Niamh lived there happily	3801	and, among the others, with	Oisín of the powerful hand, First	5405
three hundred years, though to	Oisín it felt no longer than	3801	away to Tir-na-nOg, etc. O	Oisín , the Fenian bard. The Fenian	6508 days. Only one thing made	Oisín sad - he wished he	3801	So haste away, etc. O	Oisín are as familiar to the	6509 homeland again. Niamh agreed that	Oisín should visit Ireland one more	3802	through the supposed poems of	Oisín , his son, most famous poet	6519 on each other again.'	Oisín took the snow-white horse. It	3803	Gaelic language lives, Fionn and	Oisín away. The Fenians utter three	6523
the houses and palaces that	Oisín knew had fallen into ruin	3803	are proverbial still. There is	Oisín is happy for what seems	6524 covered with moss and weeds.	Oisín decided to return to Tir	3804	loveliness, rides forth to woo	Oisín d'éis na Féinne "- Oisín	6524 strap on his saddle snapped.	Oisín fell to the ground. As	3804	marvels of Tir na nOg	Oisín after the Fenians." Patrick	6524 the ground. As soon as	Oisín touched the ground, a great	3805	and babbling old man, " na nOg. The people brought	Oisín to St Patrick, who was	3807	Oisín d'éis na Féinne "-" victories in the Fenian days,	Oisin ? " " Strong hands, clean	6531	for he knew that if	Oisin went with her he should	7061 allegory, and that Patrick and	Oisin , Saint and patriot-poet-hero, are	6533	should never see him again.	Oisin , however, knew no fear. Starting	7061

the Fianna had mighty adventures.	Oisin , the son of Fionn, went	6607	I am willing," said	Oisin . Oisin bade farewell to Fionn	7063 men were left. These were	Oisin , son of Fionn, and Caoilte	6854	am willing," said Oisin.	Oisin bade farewell to Fionn and	7064 and Caoilte, son of Ronan.	Oisin and Caoilte wandered through the	6854	Queen gave their welcome to	Oisin . They made a great wedding-feast	7064 fine old stories told by	Oisin and Caoilte. We should be	6868	should. For three hundred years	Oisin lived in the Land of	7065 away to Tir-na-nOg, etc. O	Oisin of the powerful hand, First	6952	never see you again."	Oisin said that he would give	7067
He had a son, named	Oisin - a tall, well-shaped youth	6972	stood. Moreover, it seemed to	Oisin that the people were mere	7072 more glad to know that	Oisin loved learning, music, and song	6972	they cried for help. Thereupon,	Oisin rose in his saddle, seized	7073
" Thus sang the bard	Oisin , son of Fionn." Now	6972	feat, the men gazed at	Oisin . But alas ! the strain had	7074
Now, one sunny morning as	Oisin was hunting in the woods	6973	the day of his death,	Oisin wandered sadly over his native	7075
you live, fair lady ? "	Oisin asked her. " I have	6974	Land of Youth." But	Oisin did not understand or care	7075 seen them all ? " asked	Oisin . " Yes, you may come	6976	king. I love your son,	Oisin . and I want him to	7084 like," said the Princess.	Oisin was sorry at the thought	6978	me." On hearing that,	Oisin stepped forward, took the girls	7085 in this favoured land, and	Oisin saw the golden palace. Then	6979	with you O Niamh."	Oisin said goodbye to his father	7086 with furs. The King gave	Oisin a rare choice of fine	6980	shore to greet Niamh and	Oisin . Shortly afterwards the young	7086
LAND OF YOUTH. PART II.	Oisin was so happy in the	6987	feasting, in enjoyment and	couple remained always young. At last	Oisin thought he would like to	6988	merrymaking.	Oisin lived in the Land of	7087
That is not so,"	Oisin assured her. " I only	6990	see me again," replied	Oisin . "The white horse knows the	7089
ready, and she said to	Oisin : " This horse will carry	6991	return to this land."	Oisin mounted the horse and rode	7091
Land of Youth again."	Oisin promised that he would do	6992	had changed. It seemed to	Oisin that he was in a	7092
Faith to the people; but	Oisin , who was a pagan, did	6993	growing in the main hall.	Oisin was puzzled. How could this	7092 lift that stone ! " said	Oisin . " I could take it	6994	of years ago." Sadly,	Oisin turned his horse's head to	7095 could raise the heavy weight.	Oisin was annoyed by their laughter	6995	the young stranger for help.	Oisin bent down, and with a	7095
it came to pass that	Oisin never returned to the Land	6998	snapped, the saddle slipped, and	Oisin crashed to the ground. Then	7095
He had a son, named	Oisin - a tall, well-shaped youth	7009	a cloudless sky. Fionn and	Oisin and a small band of	7104 more glad to know that	Oisin loved learning, music, and song	7009	because I love your son,	Oisin ." said Niamh. "He is	7113
" Thus sang the bard	Oisin , son of Fionn." Now	7009	poets." Then turning to	Oisin , she said, "I am here	7114
Now, one sunny morning as	Oisin was hunting in the woods	7010	as my wife." said	Oisin , "I will have all the	7115
you live, fair lady ? "	Oisin asked her. " I have	7012	one but Niamh," said	Oisin . "If that is so,"	7117 seen them all ? " asked	Oisin . " Yes, you may come	7014	not be sad," said	Oisin , "for, in three years' time	7119 like," said the Princess.	Oisin was sorry at the thought	7016	back to see you."	Oisin said goodbye to Fionn and	7120 in this favoured land, and	Oisin saw the golden palace. Then	7017	two riders. When Niamh and	Oisin reached Tir na nOg, the	7123 with furs. The King gave	Oisin a rare choice of fine	7018	old or weary. One day	Oisin said, "I think it is	7126
LAND OF YOUTH PART II	Oisin was so happy in the	7025	be very careful," said	Oisin , "for there is nothing I	7128 remained always young. At last	Oisin thought he would like to	7026	return to you." So	Oisin said goodbye to Niamh, and	7129
That is not so,"	Oisin assured her. " I only	7028	who he was. "I am	Oisin , the son of Fionn MacCool	7138 ready, and she said to	Oisin : " This horse will carry	7030
Land of Youth again."	Oisin promised that he would do	7031
Faith to the people ; but	Oisin , who was a pagan, did	7032
lift that stone ! " said	Oisin . " I could take it	7033 could raise the heavy weight.	Oisin was annoyed by their laughter	7034
it came to pass that	Oisin never returned to the Land	7037 is the story of how	Oisin , the poet, son of Fionn	7058
I wed not the noble	Oisin , oh chief, I can wed	7060
			OSSIAN.....43 (complete corpus) was their deep love truth.	Ossian , the poet, who was the	2105
			Rosemary Readers / Junior.	OSSIAN IN THE LAND OF YOUTH	3200 1925).
			that Fionn and his son	Ossian were hunting with their comrades	3203

And I esteem thy son	Ossian	above all others, and have	3208 my husband there." When	Ossian	looked at the maiden, and	3209 thy wife." 8. Then	Ossian	was very glad, and mounted	3212
And the lady said : "	Ossian	, let us speak no word	3213
all his followers saw how	Ossian	went from them they were	3215
sorrowful and wept much ; and	Ossian	himself could not keep back	3215 gold-hilted sword. 11. Then said	Ossian	: " Tell me, I pray	3217
the Land of Youth."	OSSIAN	IN THE LAND OF YOUTH	3221 shining like the sun, and	Ossian	said again : " What is	3224 to hand." 3. And	Ossian	answered : " Sore is my	3226 is still alive ! " But	Ossian	comforted her, and said : "	3229 safety, noble youth." But	Ossian	answered : " I tell thee	3231
at the Queen, and challenged	Ossian	to battle. 8. Then they	3232
nights ; but in the end	Ossian	had the victory, and the	3233
9. And the ladies carried	Ossian	within the fortress, and laid	3234
said : 12. " Welcome, O	Ossian	, son of Fionn, to the	3239
Youth." 13. So there	Ossian	made his home ; and he	3240
peace for three hundred years.	OSSIAN	IN THE LAND OF YOUTH	3242
YOUTH. PART III. 1. Though	Ossian	was happy in the enchanted	3245
And she wept much ; but	Ossian	comforted her tenderly, and vowed	3247 him were dead also. And	Ossian	went roaming mournfully up and	3248
of Youth." 7. When	Ossian	heard this, and knew that	3250 too heavy for them. And	Ossian	marvelled much that men should	3252 away like an arrow, and	Ossian	found himself lying on the	3254 understanding, or vigour. 12. But	Ossian	was not left to perish	3255
Book. 1926). The Story of	Ossian	- I. See this picture	3261
the teacher, " you see	Ossian	and Niamh on their way	3266
the land of the Ever-Young.	Ossian	was a son of a	3268
One morning, as Fionn and	Ossian	were hunting on the shore	3268
Ever-Young. I love your son	Ossian	, and I have come to	3271 grows old or weary. If	Ossian	comes with me, he too	3271
' Fionn did not wish	Ossian	to go ; but the young	3272 land." The Story of	Ossian	- II. At last they	3275
kindly, and said : ' Welcome,	Ossian	, son of Fionn, to the	3281
old ! " And there	Ossian	made his home. He married	3282
" Much she wept ; but	Ossian	comforted her tenderly and	3288
a great sadness fell upon	Ossian	promised of great strength.' "	Ossian	, and he turned his horse's	3291
white steed dashed away, and	Ossian	rode towards them, and as	3293
sire and king." "	Ossian	was changed into a very	3294
	Ossian	, in heaven the praises swell	3414